SUFFERED HEMORRHAGE

Spent Thursday at Regular Duties and Took Ill Late in Evening

Very suddenly and somewhat unexpectedly William Kirk, aged about 49 years, one of the best known business men of Charleroi died this morning at 11:15 o'clock. Mr. Kirk has been in failing health for a year or more. Thursday he was at his regular duties in his office at the Kirk & Clark store. He returned home as usual about 6 o'clock. At 8 he suffered a hemorrhage of the lungs and sank rapidly from that time until his death.

Immediate surviving relatives are the widow and three children. The children are Anna, Archie and William. Anna the oldest is about 10. Three brothers survive, Archie and Thomas of Beaver Falls and John in Scotland; also four sisters, Misses Sarah and Ellen Kirk in Beaver Falls, Mrs. W. C. Clark of Charleroi and Mrs. David Morrison of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Kirk came to Charleroi about 12 years ago to enter business with W. C. Clark under the firm name of Kirk and Clark. He also became a partner in an establishment under a similar name at Beaver Falls. The firm located here in the Hotel Charleroi building. After about three years in that location the large Kirk & Clark business block on McKean avenue near Fifth street was erected and since then the department store that has the reputation of being one of the largest and best in this part of the Monongahela valley has been located there. Before coming to Charleroi Mr. Kirk occupied a clerical position with the Carnegie company at Rankin.

Mr. Kirk was a native of Scotland. He came to the United States about 23 years ago and was married after coming to Charleroi.

As one of the founders of the Charleroi Business Men's Association and later as one of the foremost in the movement to secure a playgrounds for the children to say nothing of his numerous other accomplishments for the good of the town, Mr. Kirk was known as a civic leader.

He was a member of Charleroi Lodge No. 615, Free and Accepted

Oral Tests Come Next

Applicants for Mine Foreman and Fire Boss Papers Must Stand Test

The written examinations taken this week by applicants for fire boss and mine foreman certificates in the twenty-first bituminous district will only be a part of the work necessary for them to do before they will be given papers, providing of course that they pass the written tests. Oral tests will be given those successful in the first work and they will be fully as rigid as the written examinations.

Mine Inspectors F. W. Cunningham of Charleroi who is the head of the district examining board stated that it will probably be some time in June before he will be enabled to give out the list of names of successful applicants for papers.

SEMINARY GETS $100,000 GIFT

Stirring Events Take Place at Pittsburgh Presbyterian School

Commencement exercises were held at which time 18 young men received their diplomas. Dr. James H. Snowden, editor of the Presbyterian Banner and former pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Washington was inducted into the chair of systematic theology and a gift of $100,000 was announced Thursday at the Western Theological Seminary at Pittsburgh. Rev. John R. Burson, pastor of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church and Rev. J. T. Hackett, pastor of the First Presbyterian church attended the exercises.

The charge to Dr. Snowden was given by Dr. Maitland Alexander of Pittsburgh. The gift of $100,000 to the seminary is from Dr. Nathaniel W. Conklin. A banquet of different classmates and a reunion was held, at which visiting professors and college presidents made addresses. Dr. Snowden made his inaugural address and it was a wonderful treatise. His theme was "Theology and Life."

Rev. Hackett is a graduate of the Western Theological Seminary.

The show is good; the theatre is convenient and comfortable. Star. 244-t1

GRATEFUL FOR HELP

Monongahela Committee
Thanks Charleroi
Contributors

STATEMENT IS MADE

A letter acknowledging the receipt of money sent from Charleroi for the Cincinnati mine relief fund has been received from Miss Eliza L. Wilson, treasurer of the central committee at Monongahela. On behalf of the committee she extends words of appreciation to all the contributors in the Charleroi Mail fund, which was turned over to the Monongahela organization. Her letter follows: The Charleroi Mail, Charleroi, Pa.

Gentlemen:—In behalf of the Cincinnati Mine Relief Committee of Monongahela, I, Eliza L. Wilson, treasurer, wish to extend sincere appreciation to all those who contributed to the Charleroi Mail fund. If they could have seen the need, the existing circumstances and how diligently the committee is expending this fund contributed, they would more fully realize the situation. It is the committee's desire to thank each and every contributor most gratefully for their support. Assuring all that the money will be spent judiciously, I beg to remain.

Gratefully yours,
(Miss) Eliza L. Wilson,
Treasurer C. M. Fund Committee. The Charleroi people are not living up to their duty in the matter of giving to the needy sufferers from the disaster; is the opinion of one liberal contributor who is a business man here. He thinks there should be a more ready response than there has been, and that instead of being poor followers, the business men should take the lead in the matter. The Business Men's Association and other organizations gave as organizations, but that is not considered sufficient.

Today in the Mail fund the following report is given:
Previously reported $252.58 Samuel C. Todd, Harrisburg . 10.00 Total $262.58

POSTERS NUMEROUS

Billboards Look Like Latest Creation of Cubist Painter

RESULT OF RIVALRY

The town of Charleroi is fairly polluted with flaming posters announcing all kinds of shows and attractions. Zealous bill posters have done their utmost to fill every available bill board space and to plaster store windows. They have attained wonderful success. The Hatch Carnival company was first on the scene with posters announcing their carnival to appear at North Charleroi next week. Hardly had they got their bill boards plastered and windows stocked until the Young Wild West advance agents began their rounds. Today the second advance car of the wild west show was in and a corps of men was out hunting new places to put bills. It so happened however that the wild west advance men with the car this morning were not early risers and before they had a chance to get a good start advance men for Howe's Big Shows, to appear within a couple of weeks at Donora had captured many of the good places.

That was not allowed to interfere with their own announcements by the wild west show's agents who calmly went the rounds of windows, and hung their posters directly in front of those put up by Howe's men. The general result is, with the carnival company, two transient shows, and the local theatres fighting for billboard space, a part of the town looks like a cubist painting after the cubist artist has committed his worst.

CHECK TRAVELS LONG DISTANCE

Arrives Finally From Harrisburg by Way of Los Angeles, Cal.

After having traversed the country nearly from coast to coast a letter from Harrisburg arrived this morning containing a check for $10.00 to be added to the relief fund being raised here for the benefit of those left destitute by the Cincinnati mine explosion. The check was from State Controller Samuel C. Todd of Harrisburg made payable to W. R. Gault, president of council. It arrived in the same mail this morning with a letter of inquiry from Controller Todd. The letter evidently had come to Charleroi and then by someone had been forwarded to Will M. Gault, a former Charleroi man at Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Gault at once returned the check and enclosed a letter to Mr. Gault, the addressee and the latter this morning placed it with the local relief fund treasurer.

House Finally Passes
Bill For Electrocution of Murderers

NOW GOES TO SENATE

Favorable Action Looked For
--Fight Stirred up on Kline.
Liquor Bill

Harrisburg, May 9—If a bill which was passed finally by the House Thursday is favored by the Senate and becomes a law through the signature of the governor criminals under death sentence for murder will be spared the gruesome experience gone through by a murderer at Uniontown several days ago, where hanging was provided for the substitution of electrocution for hanging as a means of capital punishment and on final reading passed the House with but two dissenting votes.

The measure, which is generally favored, provides that the punishment must be inflicted in the Western Penitentiary, in Center County, by the warden or deputy warden. Persons now under death sentence are exempted from electrocution. The measure also prohibits the public from witnessing electrocutions. The warden, a physician, a spiritual adviser, when requested, and selected by the convict, six adult citizens selected by the warden, not more than six newspaper men and the officers of the prison are to be the only persons permitted to witness an electrocution.

The administration public utilities bill, minus many of the amendments suggested for its general improvement was reported into the House Thursday by Chairman Rockwell of the House Judiciary General Committee. By special order it will be discussed on second reading, Tuesday morning and will be brought up for final action on Wednesday. It will then go to the Senate.

Another liquor fight was precipitated in the House when the Kline appeal bill came up on second reading. This measure which has passed the Senate, amends the Brooks license law by granting the right of appeal to applicants for renewal of license turned down by the courts, after they have been in business two years. Under the present law the License Courts may refuse a removal without giving any person and their decision is final. Under the Kline bill they must give reasons and the retailer may appeal from the court's reasons to a higher court. The effect is practically to prevent the growth of dry territory through the actions of the courts, as in Chester County, following the Coatesville lynching. The bill passed second reading but will be fought at the time of final presentation.

The House passed finally without a dissenting vote the bill to provide for the surveys and preliminary work on the Ohio River ship canal to extend from Lake Erie to the Ohio. The bill carries an appropriation of $150,000 and the State is to unite with Ohio and West Virginia.

The House defeated by a vote of 92 to 22 the Davis bill providing for voting machines and creating a State Board of Voting Machine Examiners. The question of installing voting machines under the bill is optional with each county.

POLITICS VS. EFFICIENCY

When "practical politics" are permitted to sway public appointments the public welfare suffers. As example is the refusal of the New York state legislators to confirm the appointment by Governor Sulzer, of John Mitchell as commissioner of labor. No one denies that he is ably fitted for the office. The trouble is that he is not a political gangster and would not use his state office to boss the plans of politicians. So they oppose his confirmation, although he is exceptionally well qualified for the office.

Concerning the matter the New York Post says editorially:

"The nomination of John Mitchell for commissioner of labor has been reported on adversely by the committee on the judiciary of the state senate. This was expected. So also is it expected that the senate will refuse to confirm the nomination. Is there a single human being in the state who thinks that the motive of the politicians in doing this is a desire to get a better man than John Mitchell for the place? Are they scanning his record and qualifications and comparing them with those of other men whom they regard as more likely to assure the objects for which the department of labor is created? Nobody could with a straight face, so much as ask the question, except as a rhetorical one.
And yet until we come to regard any other attitude toward such an office as intolerable we are in a disgraceful political condition. Here is a great mass of new legislation, carefully designed for the purpose of promoting the general welfare of the working people of the state—their safety, their health, their protection from abuses of various kinds, the regulation of the labor of young children and of women. The efficacy of all the machinery devised for this purpose essentially depends on the administration of the department in charge of it, and especially on the character and ability of its head. But all these objects, in which the welfare of millions of human beings is deeply involved, are lost sight of, in what is to the politicians the infinitely more absorbing question of who is to get the "plum" who is have the giving of it, and how the patronage that goes with it is to be distributed."

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Senator Lee S. Overman of North Carolina when a young man, was private secretary to Gov. Vance of that state. The governor was a candidate for election to the United States senate and his most formidable opponent was Senator Merriman at that time the incumbent.

In the heat of the campaign young Overman fell in love with Merriman's daughter and prosecuted his suit with all the ardor of a southern wooer. At length things reached a stage where he felt that he could no longer continue to hold his position of secretary to the opponent of the father of his lady-love.

So, in a heart-to-heart talk with
Gov. Vance he confided the true state of affairs setting forth that while his position as secretary was highly advantageous to him from a sordid, worldly point of view, it was well sacrificed on the altar of love, etc., etc.

"Don't be a fool, son," interrupted the governor. "If Merriman can stand you for a son-in-law, I reckon I can stand you for a secretary!"

Overman held down both jobs.—
Washington Star.

Two women, mutually confiding their grouches. One woman, a sweet little soul; the other a self-assertive body.

"You can't think how this high cost of living affects us," confessed the one. "Why, my bills for clothes alone are more than twice as large this year as they were last year."

"Mercy!" gasped the other. "I don't see how your husband can afford it!"
"That's the answer—he can't," rebutted the first. "But he couldn't afford it last year. So what's the difference?"

Notice.

Parents living in the vicinity of the new postoffice building are requested to keep their children from trespassing and damaging property, building and materials. Any more offenses will be prosecuted by Government officials. 215-t3p

Coming to Charleroi "DOLLETTA"

Smallest Human Mother on Earth

With the J. Frank Hatch shows which exhibit here all next week for the benefit Lock No. 4 Volunteer Fire Department will be seen Dolletta the tiny little midget mother who created such a sensation at all the big State Fairs held in the east last summer. Dolletta is without a doubt the smallest human mother in the world. She is now 31 years old, 28 inches high and weighs but 37 pounds and is the proud mother of two beautiful children. Her little daughter, Lucea is now 7 years old and is a head taller than her mother. Her little son Charles is a year old and is the cutest little fellow ever. Both of Dolletta's children were born by means of the terrible last resort, the caesarian operation and the fact that both mother and child are alive and healthy is considered miraculous by the medical fraternity. Dolletta's husband, Major Bogkin is also a midget standing 42 inches high and weighing 97 pounds. This is positively Dollettas last year before the American public and it will be well worth your time to pay her a visit at the Carnival next week.

WILLIAM KIRK DIES VERY SUDDENLY TODAY

Member of Firm of Kirk and Clark Expires

SUFFERED HEMORRHAGE

Spent Thursday at Regular Duties and Took Ill Late
in Evening

Very suddenly and somewhat unexpectedly William Kirk, aged about 49 years, one of the best known business men of Charleroi died this morning at 11:15 o'clock. Mr. Kirk has been in failing health for a year or more. Thursday he was at his regular duties in his office at the Kirk & Clark store. He returned home as usual about 6 o'clock. At 8 he suffered a hemorrhage of the lungs and sank rapidly from that time until his death.

Immediate surviving relatives are the widow and three children. The children are Anna, Archie and William. Anna the oldest is about 10. Three brothers survive, Archie and Thomas of Beaver Falls and John in Scotland, also four sisters, Misses Sarah and Ellen Kirk in Beaver Falls, Mrs. W. C. Clark of Charleroi and Mrs. David Morrison of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Kirk came to Charleroi about 12 years ago to enter business with W. C. Clark under the firm name of Kirk and Clark. He also became a partner in an establishment under a similar name at Beaver Falls. The firm located here in the Hotel Charleroi building. After about three years in that location the large Kirk & Clark business block on McKean avenue near Fifth street was erected and since then the department store that has the reputation of being one of the largest and best in this part of the Monongahela valley has been located there. Before coming to Charleroi Mr. Kirk occupied a clerical position with the Carnegie company at Rankin.

Mr. Kirk was a native of Scotland. He came to the United States about 23 years ago and was married after coming to Charleroi.

As one of the founders of the Charleroi Business Men's Association and later as one of the foremost in the movement to secure a playgrounds for the children to say nothing of his numerous other accomplishments for the good of the town, Mr. Kirk was known as a civic leader.

He was a member of Charleroi Lodge No. 615, Free and Accepted

The written examinations taken this week by applicants for fire boss and mine foreman certificates in the twenty-first bituminous district will only be a part of the work necessary for them to do before they will be given papers, providing of course that they pass the written tests. Oral tests will be given those successful in the first work and they will be fully as rigid as the written examinations.

Mine Inspectors F. W. Cunningham of Charleroi who is the head of the district examining board stated that it will probably be some time in June before he will be enabled to give out the list of names of successful applicants for papers.

Commencement exercises were held at which time 18 young men received their diplomas. Dr. James H. Snowden, editor of the Presbyterian Banner and former pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Washington was inducted into the chair of systematic theology and a gift of $100,000 was announced Thursday at the Western Theological Seminary at Pittsburgh. Rev. John R. Burson, pastor of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church and Rev. J. T. Hackett, pastor of the First Presbyterian church attended the exercises.

The charge to Dr. Snowden was given by Dr. Martland Alexander of Pittsburgh. The gift of $100,000 to the seminary is from Dr. Nathaniel W. Conklin. A banquet of different classmen and a reunion was held, at which visiting professors and college presidents made addresses. Dr. Snowden made his inaugural address and it was a wonderful treatise. His theme was "Theology and Life."

Monongahela Committee Thanks Charleroi Contributors

STATEMENT IS MADE

A letter acknowledging the receipt of money sent from Charleroi for the Cincinnati mine relief fund has been received from Miss Eliza L. Wilson, treasurer of the central committee at Monongahela. On behalf of the committee she extends words of appreciation to all the contributors in the Charleroi Mail fund, which was turned over to the Monongahela organization. Her letter follows. The Charleroi Mail, Charleroi, Pa.

Gentlemen:—In behalf of the Cincinnati Mine Relief Committee of Monongahela, I, Eliza L. Wilson, treasurer, wish to extend sincere appreciation to all those who contributed to the Charleroi Mail fund. If they could have seen the need, the existing circumstances and how diligently the committee is expending this fund contributed, they would more fully realize the situation. It is the committee's desire to thank each and every contributor most gratefully for their support. Assuming all that the money will be spent judiciously, I beg to remain

Gratefully yours,
(Miss) Eliza L. Wilson,
Treasurer C. M. Fund Committee.
The Charleroi people are not living up to their duty in the matter of giving to the needy sufferers from the disaster, is the opinion of one liberal contributor who is a business man here. He thinks there should be a more ready response than there has been, and that instead of being poor followers, the business men should take the lead in the matter. The Business Men's Association and other organizations gave as organizations, but that is not considered sufficient.

Today in the Mail fund the following report is given:

POSTERS NUMEROUS

Billboards Look Like Latest Creation of Cubist Painter

RESULT OF RIVALRY

The town of Charleroi is fairly polluted with flaming posters announcing all kinds of shows and attractions. Zealous bill posters have done their utmost to fill every available billboard space and to plaster store windows. They have attained wonderful success. The Hatch Carnival company was first on the scene with posters announcing the carnival to appear at North Charleroi next week. Hardly had they got their bill boards plastered and windows stocked until the Young Wild West advance agents began their rounds. Today the second advance car of the wild west show was in and a corps of men was out hunting new places to put bills.

It so happened however that the wild west advance men with the car this morning were not early risers and before they had a chance to get a good start advance men for Howe's Big Shows, to appear within a couple of weeks at Donora had captured many of the good places.

That was not allowed to interfere with their own announcements by the wild west show's agents who calmly went the rounds of windows and hung their posters directly in front of those put up by Howe's men.

The general result is, with the carnival company, two transient shows, and the local theatres fighting for billboard space, a part of the town looks like a cubist painting after the cubist artist has committed his worst

CHECK TRAVELS LONG DISTANCE

Arrives Finally From Harrisburg by Way of Los Angeles, Cal.

After having traversed the coast nearly from coast to coast a letter from Harrisburg arrived this morning containing a check for $10.00 to be added to the relief fund being raised here for the benefit of those left destitute by the Cincinnati mine explosion. The check was from State Controller Samuel C. Todd of Harrisburg made payable to W. R. Gault, president of council. It arrived in the same mail this morning with a letter of inquiry from Controller Todd. The letter evidently had come to Charleroi and then by someone had been forwarded to W. R. Gault, a former Charleroi man at Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Gault at once returned the check and enclosed a letter to Mr. Gault, the addressee and the latter this morning placed it with the local relief fund treasurer.

House Finally Passes Bill For Electrocution of Murderers

NOW GOES TO SENATE

Favorable Action Looked For

-Fight Stirred up on Kline.

Liquor Bill
Harrisburg, May 9.—If a bill which was passed finally by the House Thursday is favored by the Senate and becomes a law through the signature of the governor criminals under death sentence for murder will be spared the gruesome experience gone through by a murderer at Uniontown several days ago, where hanging was provided for the substitution of electrocution for hanging as a means of capital punishment and on final reading passed the House with but two dissenting votes.

The measure, which is generally favored, provides that the punishment must be inflicted in the Western Penitentiary, in Centre County, by the warden or deputy warden. Persons not under death sentence are exempted from electrocution. The measure also prohibits the punishment withness electrocutions. The warden, a physician, a spiritual adviser, when requested, and selected by the convict, six adult citizens selected by the warden, not more than six newspaper men and the officers of the prison are to be the only persons permitted to witness an electrocution.

The administration public utilities bill in one many of the amendments suggested for its general improvement was reported into the house Thursday by Chairman Rockwell of the House Judiciary General Committee. By special order it will be discussed on second reading Tuesday morning and will be brought up for final action on Wednesday. It will then go to the Senate.

Another liquor fight was precipitated in the House when the Kline appeal bill came up on second reading. This measure which has passed the Senate, amends the Brooks license law by granting the right of appeal to applicants for renewal of license turned down by the courts, after they have been in business two years. Under the present law the License Courts may refuse a removal without giving any person and their decision is final. Under the Kline bill they must give reasons and the retailer may appeal from the court's reasons to a higher court. The effect is practically to prevent the growth of dry territory through the action of the courts, as in Chester County, following the Coatesville lynching. The bill passed second reading but will be fought at the time of final presentation.

The House passed finally without a dissenting vote the bill to provide for the surveys and preliminary work on the Ohio River ship canal to extend from Lake Erie to the Ohio. The bill carries an appropriation of $150,000 and the State is to unite with Ohio and West Virginia.

The House defeated by a vote of 82 to 22 the Davis bill providing for voting machines and creating a State Board of Voting Machine Examiners. The question of installing voting machines under the bill is optional with each county.

When "practical politics" are permitted to sway public appointments
the public welfare suffers. As example is the refusal of the New York state legislators to confirm the appointment by Governor Sulzer, of John Mitchell as commissioner of labor. No one denies that he is ably equipped for the job. The trouble is that he is not a political gangster and
would not use his state office to boss
the plans of politicians. So they oppose his confirmation, although he is exceptionally well qualified for the office.

Concerning the matter the New York Post says editorially:

"The nomination of John Mitchell
for commissioner of labor has been reported on adversely by the committee on the judiciary of the state senate. This was expected. So also is
it expected that the senate will refuse to confirm the nomination. Is there a single human being in the state who thinks that the motive of
the politicians in doing this is a desire to get a better man than John Mitchell for the place? Are they scanning his record and qualifications and comparing them with those
of other men whom they regard as more likely to secure the objects for which the department of labor is created? Nobody could with a straight face, so much as ask the question, except as a rhetorical one.
And yet until we come to regard any
other attitude toward such an office
as intolerable we are in a disgraceful political condition. Here is a great mass of new legislation, carefully designed for the purpose of promoting the general welfare of the working people of the state—their
safety, their health, their protection
from abuses of various kinds, the regulation of the labor of young children and of women. The efficacy of all the machinery devised for this purpose essentially depends on the administration of the department in charge of it, and especially on the character and ability of its head. But
all these objects, in which the welfare of millions of human beings is deeply involved, are lost sight of, in what is to the politicians the infinitely more absorbing question of who is to get the "plum" who is have the
giving of it, and how the patronage
that goes with it is to be distributed."

Senator Lee S. Overman of North Carolina when a young man, was private secretary to Gov. Vance of that state. The governor was a candidate for election to the United States senate and his most formidable opponent was Senator Merriman at that time the incumbent.

In the heat of the campaign young
Overman fell in love with Merriman's daughter and prosecuted his suit with all the ardor of a southern wooer. At length things reached a stage where
he felt that he could no longer continue to hold his position of secretary
to the opponent of the father of his lady-love.

So, in a heart-to-heart talk with
Gov. Vance he confided the true state of affairs setting forth that while his position as secretary was highly advantageous to him from a sordid,
worldly point of view, it was well sacrificed on the altar of love, etc.,
etc.

"Don't be a fool, son," interrupted
the governor. "If Merriman can stand you for a secretary!"

Overman held down both jobs—
Washington Star.

Two women, mutually confiding
their grouches. One woman, a sweet little soul; the other a self-assertive
body.

"You can't think how this high cost of living affects us," confessed
the one. "Why, my bills for clothes

alone are more than twice as large
this year as they were last year."
"Mency!" gasped the other. "I don't see how your husband can afford it!"
"That's the answer—he can't," rebutted the first. "But he couldn't afford it last year. So what's the difference?"

Coming to Charleroi "DOLLETTA"

Smallest Human Mother on Earth

With the J. Frank Hatch shows which exhibit here all next week for the benefit Lock No. 4 Volunteer Fire Department will be seen Dolletta the tiny little midsize mother who created such a sensation at all the big State Fairs held in the past few seasons. Dolletta is without a doubt the smallest human mother in the world. She is now 31 years old, 28 inches high and weighs but 57 pounds and is the proud mother of two beautiful children. Her little daughter, Lucie is now 7 years old and is a head taller than her mother. Her little son Charles is a year old and is the cutest little fellow ever. Both of Dolletta's children were born by means of the terrible last resort—the cesarian operation and the fact that both mother and children are alive and healthy is considered miraculous by the medical fraternity. Dolletta's husband, Major Bogkin is also a midget standing 42 inches high and weighing 97 pounds. This is positively Dollettas last year before the American public and it will be well worth your time to pay her a visit at the Carnival next week.

LASTICURVE-BACK SELF-REDUCING CORSET $3.00

You are respectfully invited to attend our

Introductory Sale OF THE NEWEST Nemo

Picture shows the new "Lasticurve-Back"—broad gores of elastic which extend far below the back steels and are laced clear down to the feet.

The gores are of the new Lasticurve Cloth, the latest Nemo elastic fabric, which is guaranteed to retain all of its original elasticity.

When you stand, the very long skirt clings closely, and follows the in-curve of the figure; corset-edge can't show through even a gauzy gown.

When you sit down, the corset-spreads freely;—you're comfortable. Two models:

No. 322—low bust } $3.00
No. 324—medium }

Here you have a corset of extreme length that's as easy as an old shoe. The greatest "stout women's" corset ever sold for so little. Fine white coutil, sizes 20 to 36.

Call at our store this week and try one of these marvelous Corsets.

Out of Employment

Out of employment is the oft-repeated story heard by the butcher and the grocer. But the man with a bank account never needs to tell the world he is out of employment—he has provided for this unfortunate period of life by banking a small percentage of his salary each week during his employment.

Are you doing as much? Better start a savings account with this bank today and thus begin the foundation of a family Gibraltar in time of strikes, famine or other business disturbances. It only requires a dollar to get started.
